

Ports of Philadelphia Maritime Society

2024 Scholarship Program

Founded in 1935, the Ports of Philadelphia Maritime Society has been awarding scholarships to Pennsylvania, Delaware and New Jersey Residents or employees seeking education and advancement in the local Maritime Industry since 2012.

Up to SIX SCHOLARSHIPS have been approved for this year, in the amount of $3,500 each. Scholarships will be awarded at one of the Maritime Society events during the year.

THERE ARE THREE CATEGORIES of scholarships. Scholarship funds will be directly applied as indicated.

1. INDUSTRY DEGREE (CURRENT OR FUTURE COLLEGE/ACADEMY STUDENT) – Tuition for Post High School Student in Degree Program in a Higher Education Marine, Maritime, Engineering, Naval Architecture, Transportation or Logistics. Scholarship funds will be applied directly to the institution specified for tuition purposes.
2. MARINER ADVANCEMENT – Tuition and expenses toward USCG required training for an original credential, license, or upgrade (not a renewal)
3. PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT – Tuition and expenses toward attendance to a Certificated Professional Development Course related to Marine, Maritime or Port-Related Subject and or employment.

TO APPLY, complete the desired category application page along with the requirements listed on that specific application. To be considered a complete application all documents must have the applicants' name in the title, all documents should be attached to one email and all requirements must be met.

Completed applications are due April 15th, 2024.

If you have previously been awarded a scholarship from the Society, please state that on your application. If you were awarded a scholarship for the previous year, we ask that you do not apply this year and allow for others to have the opportunity. Please apply for next year. If you applied previously and were not awarded a scholarship, please state that on your application.

Complete applications and supporting documents will ONLY be accepted via email to the following:
